

Student Score = 20

- b. Describe what happened to the size of the bacteria population after the antibiotic was added.

The bacteria population decrease a lot after it was added, but then it started reproducing so the population started growing again because they weren't killing them

Student Response

The bacteria population decrease a lot after it was added, but then it started reproducing so the population started growing again because they weren't killing them.