Grade: 2 ELA/Literacy Lesson/Unit Title: Unit 2: Reading Information Books, Reading the World

I. Alignment to the Depth of the CCSS

The lesson/unit aligns with the letter and spirit of the CCSS:

- Targets a set of K-2 ELA/Literacy CCSS for teaching and learning.
- Includes a clear and explicit purpose for instruction.
- Selects quality text(s) that align with the requirements outlined in the standards, present characteristics similar to CCSS K-2 exemplars (Appendix B), and are of sufficient scope for the stated purpose.
- Provides opportunities for students to present ideas and information through writing and/or drawing and speaking experiences.

A unit or longer lesson should:

- Emphasize the explicit, systematic development of foundational literacy skills (concepts of print, phonological awareness, the alphabetic principle, high frequency sight words, and phonics).
- Regularly include specific fluency-building techniques supported by research (e.g., monitored partner reading, choral reading, repeated readings with text, following along in the text when teacher or other fluent reader is reading aloud, short timed practice that is slightly challenging to the reader).
- Integrate reading, writing, speaking and listening so that students apply and synthesize advancing literacy skills.
- Build students' content knowledge in social studies, the arts, science or technical subjects through a coherent sequence of texts and series of questions that build knowledge within a topic.

Summary of Observations and Suggestions for Improvement:

Observations:

- Reading, writing, speaking, and listening are integrated in the lessons
- There is a strong emphasis on building content knowledge

Suggestions:

- Consider ways to build reading fluency

Rating for Dimension I: Alignment is non-negotiable and requires a rating of 2 or 3. If rating is 0 or 1 then the review does not continue.

II. Key Shifts in the CCSS

The lesson/unit addresses key shifts in the CCSS:

- Reading Text Closely: Makes reading text(s) closely (including read alouds) a central focus of instruction and includes regular opportunities for students to ask and answer text-dependent questions.
- ☐ Text-Based Evidence: Facilitates rich text-based discussions and writing through specific, thought-provoking questions about common texts (including read alouds and, when applicable, illustrations, audio/video and other media).
- Academic Vocabulary: Focuses on explicitly building students’ academic vocabulary and concepts of syntax throughout instruction.

A unit or longer lesson should:

- ☐ Grade-Level Reading: Include a progression of texts as students learn to read (e.g., additional phonic patterns are introduced, increasing sentence length). Provides text-centered learning that is sequenced, scaffolded and supported to advance students toward independent grade-level reading.
- ☐ Balance of Texts: Focus instruction equally on literary and informational texts as stipulated in the CCSS (p.5) and indicated by instructional time (may be more applicable across a year or several units).
- Balance of Writing: Include prominent and varied writing opportunities for students that balance communicating thinking and answering questions with self-expression and exploration.

Summary of Observations and Suggestions for Improvement:

Observations:

- The unit explicitly teaches close reading and gives students opportunities to practice
- Content vocabulary is taught and utilized

Suggestions:

- Require students to provide text-based evidence when answering questions
- Include a progression of texts to read, to ensure increased test-complexity over time

III. Instructional Supports

The lesson/unit is responsive to varied student learning needs:

- Cultivates student interest and engagement in reading, writing, and speaking about texts.
- Addresses instructional expectations and is easy to understand and use for teachers (e.g., clear directions, sample proficient student responses, sections that build teacher understanding of the whys and how of the material).
- Integrates targeted instruction in multiple areas such as grammar and syntax, writing strategies, discussion rules and aspects of foundational reading.
- Provides substantial materials to support students who need more time and attention to achieve automaticity with decoding, phonemic awareness, fluency, and/or vocabulary acquisition.
- Provides all students (including emergent and beginning readers) with extensive opportunities to engage with grade-level texts and read alouds that are at high levels of complexity; including appropriate scaffolding so that students directly experience the complexity of text.
- Focuses on sections of rich text(s) (including read alouds) that present the greatest challenge; provides discussion questions and other supports to promote student engagement, understanding and progress toward independence.
- Integrates appropriate, extensive and easily implemented supports for students who are ELL, have disabilities and/or read or write below grade level.
- Provides extensions and/or more advanced text for students who read or write above grade level.

A unit or longer lesson should:

- Include a progression of learning where concepts, knowledge and skills advance and deepen over time (may be more applicable across the year or several units).
- Gradually remove supports, allowing students to demonstrate their independent capacities (may be more applicable across the year or several units).
- Provide for authentic learning, application of literacy skills and/or student- directed inquiry.
- Indicate how students are accountable for independent engaged reading based on student choice and interest to build stamina, confidence and motivation (may be more applicable across the year or several units).
- Use technology and media to deepen learning and draw attention to evidence and texts as appropriate.

Summary of Observations and Suggestions for Improvement:

Observations:

- The use of book clubs will keep students engaged and encourage discussion about text
- The unit shows evidence of scaffolding concepts, knowledge, and skills, gradually moving students towards independence
- The unit includes authentic use of technology and media
- Students have opportunities for choice

Suggestions:

- Consider using lexile levels to ensure increased text-complexity over time

- Assesses student proficiency using methods that are unbiased and accessible to all students.
- Includes aligned rubrics or assessment guidelines that provide sufficient guidance for interpreting student performance and responding to areas where students are not yet meeting standards.
