

Schools qualifying for Comprehensive Support and Improvement (CSI)

- Christina School District's Bayard Middle School*
- Christina School District's Newark High School
- Christina School District's Elbert-Palmer Elementary School*
- Christina School District's Stubbs Elementary School*
- Colonial School District's McCullough Middle School
- Red Clay Consolidated School District's A.I. duPont Middle School
- Red Clay Consolidated School District's Shortlidge Academy
- Red Clay Consolidated School District's Stanton Middle School

*For schools that that are part of Christina School District's Wilmington school reconfiguration plan, funding will follow those students to support them in their new buildings.

Schools qualifying for Targeted Support and Improvement (TSI) for subgroup support

- Brandywine School District's P.S. duPont Middle School (students with disabilities)
- Capital School District's William Henry Middle School (students with disabilities)
- Christina School District's Shue-Medill Middle School (students from low-income families and students with disabilities)
- Colonial School District's Gunning Bedford Middle School (students with disabilities)
- Kuumba Academy Charter School (students with disabilities)
- Lake Forest School District's Chipman Middle School (students with disabilities)
- Lake Forest School District's Lake Forest High School (Hispanic/Latino and multi-racial students)
- Milford School District's Milford Central Academy (students with disabilities)
- Woodbridge School District's Woodbridge Middle School (students with disabilities)