The People We Love

Mothers, fathers, fellow teachers too

Gather around so I can talk about you

You help us read and write; you love us too

You help us every day and if we need you too

You never leave us alone; you're always by our side

We love you and we never want to say good-bye

You help us

You love us

We always dream that you are the people we love and that is the best dream

The dream of a lifetime

Help the children who are suffering, help the children who are going through rough times, and help the children in need. My grandmother has gone through something similar. I have learned lessons in life. I learned that even though her ups and downs ,she has still moved on with her life. I have also learned that we should be thankful on what we have.

Remember to move on with your life, even though there are some hard obstacles in your way. Never give up on your dreams someday you will accomplish it. Believe in the days of the days of tomorrow, and believe in yourself. I did, and you should too.

The New American Dream

By Saera Faridoon

They enlighten,

They nourish,

They strengthen,

They flourish.

They help us achieve our goals,

They build up our futures,

They make us brighter.

They give us knowledge

and even more,

They give us the greatest gift possible.

They give us the New American Dream

Everyone has a dream.

Schools ask for no bulling and smart brains.

Business ask for customers.

People ask for no robbers.

Pets ask for loving owners.

Parents ask for safe children.

Children ask for teachers, respect, family, and a loving home.

Everyone has a dream.

So do you.

Ms. Sanchez

I am telling you about Ana Sanchez, a third grade teacher. Ms. Sanchez comes from Spain. The hardest thing about Spain and the United States is lunchtime. In Spain, after two hours all she wants to do is take a nap. She likes Spain and the United States but she has friends there, here she has to go out and meet people. What she loves to do here in the United States is visit other towns and new places. She likes to play games from here and Spain. She has traveled to 18 states and 17 countries and hopes to go to Hawaii. She came here because she wanted a new experience. She loves her job in Spain and here. She loves to explore, she tries to travel during her long weekends. She likes to explore new restaurants and streets and parks. Some of her favorite foods are pizza, Pasta, couscous but her most favorite food is Moroccan dishes. She likes it because it is a little bit spicy and has lamb and leg tables. Her favorite time of the year is Summer because it is hot, she does not need to wear three layers of clothes and the days are longer and she can go to the beach. She has been to a waterpark. She loves and enjoys the waterpark. The waterpark she has visited in Spain called Aquapark and she has a lot of fun there. Her favorite book is Juan Salvador Gaviota. What she likes to play is araña feluda which means bushy spider. Her favorite sport is dancing. She couldn't live without dancing! She likes all kinds of music but does not like rap or hip-hop. Her favorite color is turquoise which is a mix of blue and green. She likes this school because the students are so adorable and she misses her students in Spain and when she sees them she will kiss them and hug them. When she has a feeling that makes her homesick, then she uses Skype to talk and connect to her family.

Mr. Peters is the coolest teacher ever! Some of the reasons he's cool is because he gives us fun work, and teaches us about our body
and how we can stay healthy.
He helps us when we need it.
He helps prep us for DCAS.
Mr. Peters also looks John Cena! Mr. Peters is buff, buffer than my dad! He takes care of us like his own child!
